UNIVERSIDAD DE GRANADA

E. T. S. de Ingeniería de Edificación

International mobility: incoming students

Erasmus+, European Alliances (Arqus) and Swiss-European Mobility Programme

Open to undergraduate students from:

- European Union member states
- Programme-associated countries (Turkey, Norway, Liechtenstein, Iceland, Serbia, and North Macedonia)
- Switzerland (Swiss-European Mobility Programme)
- ARQUS Alliance universities

For more information about the process and documentation, click here

Erasmus+: Third countries not associated to the program (International credit mobility)

- Open to undergraduate students from non-EU Partner Countries that have a signed bilateral Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility (ICM) agreement with the University of Granada.
- Mobility activities must be compatible with the student's degree learning and personal development needs.
- Standard stay duration: 5 months (running from the Induction Days, one week prior to the start of classes, through the exam period). Reductions are only granted in exceptional case.

For more information about the process and admission requirements, click here

Free-mobility students

- Aimed at students coming to the UGR outside the framework of any bilateral

Copyright© 2026 Universidad de Granada

exchange agreement.

- Mandatory enrolment status: You must be officially enrolled at your home university both at the time of application and throughout the entire period of your stay at the UGR.
- Maximum duration: Stays are strictly temporary and cannot exceed one full academic year.
- Tuition fees: Unlike exchange students, free-mobility students must pay regular UGR public tuition fees according to the number of ECTS credits taken (currently €12.62 per ECTS credit, with full-time enrolment typically comprising 30 ECTS per semester / 60 ECTS per year), plus applicable administrative fees.

For more information about the process and admission requirements, click here

General Application deadlines

Nominations: Partner universities must send official student nominations by email directly to etsie_externas@ugr.es

Applications for mobility periods during the first semester or full academic year*:	From 1 April to 15 May.
Applications for mobility periods during the second semester:	From 1 to 31 October.

* Remember: the full academic year at the UGR usually runs from September to June. The first semester, from September to February; and the second, from February to June.

Academic Offer, Calendars & Timetables

- Study Plan – Bachelor's Degree in Building Engineering (Grado en Edificación): https://grados.ugr.es/edificacion/docencia/plan-estudios
- Study Plan – Double Bachelor's Degree in Building Engineering and Business Administration (Doble Grado en Edificación y ADE): https://grados.ugr.es/edificacion-ade/docencia/plan-estudios
- Academic Calendar & Timetables – Bachelor's Degree in Building Engineering: https://grados.ugr.es/edificacion/docencia/horarios-calendarios
- Academic Calendar & Timetables – Double Bachelor's Degree in Building Engineering and Business Administration: https://grados.ugr.es/edificacion-

Copyright© 2026 Universidad de Granada

ade/docencia/horarios-calendarios

Additional student support services

- Arrival, Enrolment & Virtual Office (Acceso Identificado): Attend the UGR Induction Days and the ETSIE welcome session. Once enrolled at the School's International Relations Office (ORI), you will receive a 4-digit PIN. Using your passport/ID number and this PIN, you can access the UGR Virtual Office (Oficina Virtual) to manage your institutional email (@correo.ugr.es), Wi-Fi (eduroam), academic records, online payments, and dining hall takeaway reservations. You can also request an official Student Accreditation certificate at the ETSIE ORI for immigration procedures or while waiting for your student card.
- University Smart Card (TUI - Tarjeta Universitaria Inteligente): Your official UGR student ID card (https://csirc.ugr.es/informacion/servicios/tui-tarjeta-universitaria-inteligente).
    - Digital TUI: Available on the official mobile app "UGRApp" once you upload a valid photo via the Virtual Office ("Gestión de mi foto UGR").
    - Physical TUI (Plastic): Required to access buildings and facilities with electronic locks (SICAE). After enrolling, book a mandatory appointment via the Virtual Office ("Emisión instantánea de la tarjeta TUI - CITA PREVIA") and visit an issuance point on campus with your original passport/ID.
- University Dining Halls (SCU - Servicio de Comedores Universitarios): Enrolled students can eat at UGR dining halls across the campuses using their physical or digital TUI. You can also check daily menus and reserve takeaway meals in advance via the Virtual Office ("Comedores - Menú para llevar"). Note: direct access to https://scu.ugr.es/ requires connection to the UGR network or VPN.
- Language Courses & Certification (CLM - Centro de Lenguas Modernas): Located at Placeta del Hospicio Viejo s/n (info@clm.ugr.es / +34 958 215 660 / https://clm-granada.com/), offering Spanish for Foreigners and other language courses. If you do not hold an official Spanish certificate (OLS assessment results are not valid as official certificates), you may take the CLM's free Spanish placement test for exchange students (not required for native speakers or ICM students).
- UGR Buddy Programme (Programa Mentor): Tick the option "Solicito el Programa Mentor / I wish to apply for the Buddy Programme" in your online application to be paired with a local UGR student for cultural, academic, and social support upon arrival (programamentor@ugr.es).
- ESN Granada (Erasmus Student Network): Non-profit student association organizing trips, cultural activities, and integration events (https://www.esngranada.org/). Office located at Facultad de Caminos (Floor -1, Fuentenueva Campus; usual hours: Tuesday & Thursday 18:00–20:00, Wednesday & Friday 11:00–13:00). Bring a passport-sized photo to get your 12-month ESNcard for local and international discounts.

Copyright© 2026 Universidad de Granada

- Sports, Culture, Health & Special Needs: Access the Sports Activities Centre (CAD), cultural programmes (La Madraza, Casa de Porras, Cine Club Universitario), and free psychological/health guidance (Gabinete Psicopedagógico and Centro Juvenil de Orientación para la Salud). Students with disabilities or special educational needs (SEN) can request dedicated support through the Vice-Rectorate for Student Services and Campus Life. All incoming students must hold valid health and travel insurance (European Health Insurance Card for EU/EEA/Swiss citizens, or private medical and travel insurance).
- Immigration & Emergency Numbers: EU/Schengen citizens staying over 3 months must register at the Foreigners' Office (Modelo EX-18 + Fee 790). Non-EU students enrolled at an EU university do not need a visa if holding a valid EU residence permit, provided the UGR ORI notifies the Foreigners' Office (from 3 months before up to 1 month after arrival). Non-EU students from non-EU universities with visas over 180 days must apply for a TIE residence card in Granada. Emergency numbers: 112 (General/Medical EU emergencies) and 091 (National Police).

Contact

- Academic queries & Learning Agreement (ETSIE International Relations Office):
  - ETSIE Mobility Coordinator: Gloria Titos Vela
  - E-mail: etsie_movilidad@ugr.es (In the subject: Last Name, Name and Query)
- Nominations: etsie_externas@ugr.es
- Technical issues with the online application: Central International Relations Office (intlinfo@ugr.es) / General Central IRO inquiries: iro@ugr.es (+34 958 24 90 30, Complejo Administrativo Triunfo, Avda. del Hospicio s/n).

Copyright© 2026 Universidad de Granada